

Cisco India Partner sales organisation announcement

Please join me in extending a warm welcome to Hemant Bhojwani, who has joined the India Channel Organization as a Partner Account Executive, based in the NCR region.

In this role, Hemant will be responsible for driving the public sector channel business and scaling it to even greater heights.

Hemant brings over 20 years of rich experience in Sales and Business Development. He joins us from HPE, where he managed Compute Sales, and has previously held key roles at organizations including IBM, Dell, and HCL Infosystems. He holds a degree in Mechanical Engineering from Karnataka University and an MBA in Sales and Marketing from MNIT, Jaipur.

On the personal front, Hemant resides in Gurgaon with his family. He is married, has a 15-year-old daughter, and enjoys spending time with his family, playing table tennis, and swimming.

Let’s give Hemant a warm welcome and wish him great success in his new role!

Thanks & Regards,

Namratha Setlur
Leader - Partner Sales
